He is a brilliant speaker and held the audience spellbound as he told us the why of Christ's coming. We hope that he will make his visit often. Next, our old and tried friend, Prof. A. J. Neely, supervisor of all our schools in his own unique way spoke along the lines of "Know thyself." We need not comment on his delivery, for each of us know that Prof. Neely is one of our deepest thinkers as well as one of our most experienced instructors. We were also favored with music by Mrs. Lela Guest which was very fine. The collection for the day was very good. The Defense Society will meet with us Thursday the 24th. ## A SPLENDID GIFT.

For the benefit of the Negroes of the United States the Presbyterian Church has just appropriated $400,000 as a part of its New Era program. This will be used under the direction of the Freedmen's Board of the Presbyterian Church for the education of the Negro youth of the country.

In announcing its plans the Presbyterian Church says: "The unsurpassed loyalty of the Negro soldier, and his courage, obedience, and patriotism; the devotion and consecration of his entire race in this land, to follow the flag, and meet our national responsibility; his ungrudging enlistment, despite a justified consciousness of much injustice and denial of rights, have shown him worthy of our confidence and praise. "He has the right to think a New Era has dawned. He has the right to have visions of more schools, more aid for the illiterate and unguided, more and better preachers to offer the true Gospel. We must turn the one-roomed, miserable cabin into a neat and attractive home, train Negro men and women to be pure hearted parents, help the race to clean ambitions, to pure amusements, more elevating conditions, and give the Negro the privilege of developing fully, and without unlawful restraint, every talent and every power."

BY ASSOCIATED NEGRO PRESS.

Richmond, Va., April 17.—It may not be generally known that there are white principals in many of the Negro schools of Richmond. A petition from Negro citizens asking that the whites be replaced with Colored principals was considered and finally turned down by the local board of education.

H. Nick Carter and Theodore Drury, professional actors of national reputation, will play the roles of "Damon & Pythias" at the Auditorium Theatre May 15-16. Thirty-six other characters—all home talent.

—That the man who is too narrow, skeptical and crooked to trust anyone else is seldom trusted by anybody, including himself.

—That if you can't succeed on your own merits, you certainly can't by knocking your brother. Cut out the knocking and try boosting.

—That a woman who is a liar is usually the biggest liar in the community.

—That everybody who hasn't cleaned up for Spring ought to get busy.

—That the Negro who doesn't own a home or is making an effort to buy one these days in this old town is in bad as far as society goes.

—That you may put a lion's skin on a jackass but he'll be a jackass just the same.

—That every man who grasps your hand and says "howdy, brother," is not your friend by any means.

—That one soldier boy who was always wishing while he was in France that he was back over here has had such an unpleasant time since getting back that he's constantly wishing he was back over there.

—That jealousy in the Negro race is more pronounced than in any other race in the world. Amen.

—That those "BIG NEGROES" who refuse to pay our collectors and who say "I'm coming to the office" and never come may think they're getting by, but we're going to wake them up after awhile.
